Dear Partners,

We would like to assure our customers that Advantech Czech s.r.o. is closely monitoring the evolution of the Coronavirus (COVID-19), situation and the possible impact on our supply chain and services provided by our parent company and suppliers.

Thanks to the policies and strategies associated with our manufacturing activities, we currently cannot see a negative impact on our supply chain. However, the situation may deteriorate so we recommend our partners take the appropriate steps to ensure future deliveries.
